JAKARTA

After 2 days, flights restart in Indonesia

Air travel across Jakarta and nearby regions resumed Tuesday following a two-day airport closure caused by volcanic ash from Anak Krakatau. Transportation officials reopened five airports after confirming safe conditions, ending disruptions that grounded nearly 3,000 flights and impacted 341,000 passengers. Crews inspected all aircraft before takeoff, while pilots received instructions to avoid restricted ash zones.

Rajnath arrives in Sri Lanka

Indian Defence Minister Rajnath Singh arrived in Colombo Tuesday for a three-day visit to expand bilateral ties, maritime security, and defense cooperation, marking the first such visit by an Indian defense minister in 38 years. Singh will hold talks with Sri Lanka's top leadership, while the two nations prepare to sign three bilateral agreements. These include an air defense cooperation pact—under which India will provide maintenance support for Sri Lankan air defense guns—and joint military training initiatives.

Houthi attacks in Saudi ignite fires at oil assets

AP

CAIRO

Iranian-backed Houthi rebels launched a wide-ranging wave of drone and missile attacks on Saudi Arabia on Tuesday, wounding 73 people and igniting fires at key oil facilities and utilities.

Operations at several installations were temporarily suspended as firefighters battled blazes across the kingdom's southern region.

The attacks targeted civilian and industrial hubs in Jazan, Abha, Najran and Khamis Mushait, including major Aramco facilities and the King Khalid Air Base.

Saudi-led coalition spokesperson Maj Gen Turki al-Malki condemned the strikes as a grave escalation and pledged a decisive response.

Houthi spokesman Brig Gen Yahya Saree claimed responsibility, framing the strikes as retaliation against Saudi actions.

The violence threatens critical global oil supply lines around the strategic Bab el-Mandeb waterway, an alternative shipping route used to navigate regional maritime bottlenecks.

The air strikes follow weeks of renewed ground battles inside Yemen, effectively destroying a 2022 truce.

According to the United Nations, recent clashes have killed nearly 200 people and forced more than 21,000 to flee their homes in southwestern provinces over a 27-hour period.

International aid organisations warned that displaced families are arriving in safe zones without basic food or shelter.

Saudi blamed for jail strike

Cairo: Houthi rebels in Yemen accused Saudi Arabia of striking a prison on Monday in northern Jawf province, killing seven people, including a child. The attack on the Central Corrective Facility in Hazm also wounded seven others, with 35 prisoners reportedly trapped under rubble. Houthi military spokesperson Brig Gen Yahya Saree vowed retaliation, accusing Saudi forces of widespread airstrikes. Saudi Arabia has not commented on the claim. The strike comes as government forces advance across multiple fronts, further shattering a 2022 ceasefire in a civil war that has claimed over 150,000 lives.

Iran threatens to retaliate against any new US strike

Agencies

DUBAI

Iran threatened on Monday to retaliate against any new US attacks on its assets, warning that energy infrastructure across the Gulf, including US oil and gas interests, was vulnerable.

Iranian Parliament Speaker Mohammad Bager Qalibaf issued the warning following weekend attacks on shipping that pushed global oil prices near six-week highs.

The threats underscore growing risks of escalation six months into the conflict, which began on February 28. Daily commodity transits through the Strait of Hormuz have dropped to an average of 10 vessels, the lowest level since May.

Senior Iranian security official Mohsen Rezaei said Tehran would soon establish a new restricted shipping zone extending from the US naval blockade line into the Gulf, warning that entering vessels would face Iranian sanctions. Tehran maintains it will only keep the strait open if Washington stops attacks and threats.

The conflict expanded regionally on Monday as Israeli strikes on southern Lebanon killed at least 12 people, marking one of the deadliest days of bombardment in recent weeks. Tehran insists any lasting diplomatic deal with Washington must halt Israeli military action in Lebanon.

US imposes more sanctions

Washington: The Trump administration on Tuesday imposed sanctions on Iran's aviation industry, targeting more than two dozen commercial and private airlines as well as foreign cargo service providers in its new push to isolate Tehran from its remaining trading partners. -AP

B'desh prez seeks stronger India relations

Dhaka: Bangladesh President Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir on Tuesday called for quickly resolving the outstanding issues with India through discussions to further strengthen bilateral relations as Indian High Commissioner Dinesh Trivedi paid a courtesy call on him.

Alamgir, the longest-serving secretary general of the ruling Bangladesh Nationalist Party of Prime Minister Tarique Rahman, assumed office as the 23rd President on August 21. -PTI

Highest-paid world leader to get salary hike of $1 million

Kuala Lumpur: Singapore ministers are receiving their first salary raise in 15 years to help attract top talent into politics. Prime Minister Lawrence Wong announced on Tuesday.

Under a revised framework, the benchmark annual pay for a lowest-grade minister will rise to 1.8 million Singapore dollars ($1.42 million), while the Prime Minister's benchmark will increase to 3.6 million Singapore dollars ($2.8 million).

TUNNEL RESCUE

Two hydropower workers were rescued alive after surviving nine days trapped inside a flooded tunnel following a massive glacial collapse in Nepal on August 28. The disaster unleashed mudslides that killed over 1,300 people and submerged 12 power projects. Kabir Maharjan and mechanical foreman Sanjay Sah took shelter in an air pocket inside a sloped cable-duct tunnel at the Upper Trishuli 3A project. For nine days in pitch darkness, Sah recited prayers while Maharjan sipped muddy water to survive. The death toll from the flash floods in Nepal rose to 1,357 on Tuesday as more bodies were recovered.

Babar blindsided by Pak shake-up

CHOP & CHANGE | Skipper learns of PCB overhaul only after official announcement

BIRMINGHAM

Pakistan captain Babar Azam admitted he was blindsided by his team's dramatic overhaul ahead of the third and final Test against England, revealing that he learnt about the sweeping changes only after the Pakistan Cricket Board made them public.

"It was news to me. I found out after," Babar said on the eve of the Edgbaston Test.

Heavy defeats at Headingley and Lord's prompted the PCB to send seven players home and remove head coach Sarfaraz Ahmed and assistant Umar Gul. Five players without Test experience were called up, while white-ball coach Mike Hesson and Ashley Noffke were drafted in.

"The PCB decided it, so they will be able to explain better," Babar said.

'NOTHING TO LOSE'

With the series already lost, Babar urged his reshaped side to play freely and use the final Test as an opportunity. "We should play freely and believe in ourselves as a team," he said.

Babar missed the innings defeat at Headingley with a finger injury before scoring just 8 and 6 in Pakistan's 194-run loss at Lord's.

England captain Joe Root, meanwhile, rejected suggestions Pakistan had lacked fight, calling that assessment "disrespectful" to both teams.

"We've found Pakistan a challenge," Root said, crediting England's ability to read conditions and prevent the tourists from gaining a foothold.

Root himself enters Edgbaston seeking runs, averaging 29.44 across five Tests this summer.

INDIA'S PAKISTAN CALL | MEA says participation will depend on sports policy, international bodies and athletes' interests

ANI
NEW DELHI

India's participation in the 2027 South Asian Games in Pakistan will be guided by the government's sports policy, international sporting bodies and the interests of Indian athletes, the Ministry of External Affairs said on Tuesday.

MEA spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal said India's participation in international and multilateral championships would follow the recently announced framework of the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports.

"We are guided by what directions... the international bodies, sports bodies, have to say on such matters, as well as the interest of our sports people," Jaiswal said.

The clarification comes after the government's May 2026 policy, which ruled out bilateral sporting engagements with Pakistan while allowing Indian and Pakistani athletes to compete in multilateral international events.

Mbappé's Ballon d'or dream gathers pace

MADRID

Kylian Mbappé has strengthened his Ballon d'Or credentials after a record-breaking FIFA World Cup campaign, with the Real Madrid forward admitting that his exploits have given him a strong case for football's most coveted individual prize.

Mbappé claimed the World Cup Golden Boot with 10 goals, taking his career tally in the tournament to a record 22 goals and becoming the competition's all-time leading scorer. France, however, finished fourth, leaving the striker's individual brilliance as one of the tournament's biggest talking points.

"I have the feeling that it's a good year for that, but there's still a long time to go."

The 27-year-old acknowledged that wearing the Real Madrid shirt inevitably puts him in Ballon d'Or conversations.

"When you play for Real Madrid, naturally people associate you with that kind of award."

Yet Mbappé insists personal statistics come second to team success as Madrid begin their Champions League campaign against Inter Milan.

"I'd happily score only 30 goals if it meant winning trophies. I'd rather win titles."

No compromise on Imran's health: Akram

PTI
NEW DELHI

Pakistan pace great Wasim Akram has broken his silence over former captain Imran Khan's health, saying there can be "no compromise" when it comes to the well-being of the man who led Pakistan to its historic 1992 World Cup triumph.

Akram, who played under Imran during that famous campaign, said he had not spoken to his former skipper for three years but remained deeply concerned about him.

"I haven't spoken to him for three years. It's so unfortunate, politically, what's happening with him," Akram told The Athletic.

"The court of law is the court of law. But as far as his health is concerned, there can be no compromise on that."

Legends rally around Imran

Akram's comments come after West Indies great Brian Lara joined former international captains in calling for proper medical treatment for the 73-year-old Imran.

According to the report, 22 international captains have written an open letter to Pakistan Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif seeking proper medical care and humane treatment for the former Pakistan captain.

Former teammate Javed Miandad has also expressed concern over Imran's well-being.

Imran has been imprisoned following convictions in multiple corruption cases. He has denied wrongdoing.

"We need to safeguard his health," Akram said. "But I'm worried. I miss him a lot."
