Flying instructor held for rape

ANI
HYDERABAD

A 30-year-old flying instructor at an Institute of Pilot Training, has been accused of raping a female student and subjecting her to emotional manipulation, according to a complaint filed at the Begumpet police station.

The victim alleged that the perpetrator gained her trust under the guise of a "brotherly" relationship while they studied together at his residence in Brahmanwadi. On December 27, 2025, she stated that the perpetrator emotionally manipulated her into staying back at his PG, claiming personal distress, before forcibly having sexual intercourse and threatening her and her family if she disclosed the incident.

Following the alleged assault, the victim reported continuous intimidation by the perpetrator, which forced her to stop attending study sessions by March 1, 2026. She described the incident as "rape, emotional manipulation, criminal intimidation, and abuse of trust and authority by a person in the position of a teacher and brother figure."

SABARIMALA CASE: | This declaration came during a hearing on discrimination against women at religious sites

Top court: Can rule on religious superstition; Centre objects

PTI
NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Wednesday observed that it has the right and jurisdiction to hold what is a superstitious practice in a religion.

This came in response to the Centre's submission that a secular court cannot decide the issue as judges are experts in the field of law, not religion.

A nine-judge constitution bench headed by Chief Justice of India Surya Kant is hearing petitions related to discrimination against women at religious places, including the Sabarimala temple in Kerala, and on the ambit and scope of religious freedom practised by multiple faiths.

At the outset, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, appearing for the Centre, asked how the court decides what a superstitious practice is.

"Even assuming that there is a superstitious practice," he said, "It is not for the court to determine that it is superstition. Under Article 25(2)(b) of the Constitution, it is for the legislature to step in and enact a reform law." "The legislature can say that a particular practice is superstition and requires reform. There are several such statutes and laws, for the prevention of black magic and other such practices," Mehta told the bench, which also comprised Justices B V Nagarathna, M M Sundresh, Ahsanuddin Amanullah, Aravind Kumar, Augustine George Masih, Prasanna B Varale, R Mahadevan and Joyymalya Bagchi.

Responding to Mehta's submission, Justice Amanullah said the statement is too simplistic, as the court has the right and the jurisdiction to hold whether something is superstitious.

"What will follow is for the legislature to deal with. But, in court, you cannot say that whatever the legislature decides is the last word. That cannot be," he said.

Mehta said a secular court cannot decide that a religious practice is mere superstition, because the court may not possess such scholarly competence.

"Your Lordships are experts in the field of law, not religion," he said.

The solicitor general argued, "Something religious for Nagaland may be a superstition for me. We are in a greatly diverse society. Maharashtra has Black Act. They may say this is the practice prevalent in our area and that's why we protect it under Article 25(2)(b)," Mehta said.

Justice Bagchi asked if witchcraft was part of religious practice, would it not be considered superstition? "Your argument is that it is for the legislature to take up and prohibit any practice that promotes it (witchcraft). Let us say the court is approached under Article 32 of the Constitution, saying that a religious practice of witchcraft exists, and the legislature is silent. Can the court not use the 'doctrine of unoccupied field' to give directions to prohibit such a practice, keeping in mind... health, morality and public order?" Justice Bagchi asked Mehta.

The solicitor general replied that judicial review can be done because it falls under 'health, morality and public order', and not because it is superstition.

Schoolgirl raped by 7 men, threatened with explicit video

BAREILLY

A 16-year-old girl was allegedly raped by seven people in a cafe here in the Bhojipura area, police said on Wednesday. On April 2, the girl was on her way to school when she was forced by one of the accused to ride on his bike to the cafe, where other people were already present.

Deputy Superintendent of Police (North) Mukesh Chandra Mishra said the student was allegedly threatened with the circulation of a video of an earlier sexual assault.

According to an FIR lodged at Bhojipura Police Station, the accused were identified as Asad Haider alias Karan, Chand, restaurant owner Saifi, Samir Ahmad, Banti, and two unnamed persons.

Mishra said that on March 19, Asad had taken the girl to a room above the 'Saifi Cafe' and sexually assaulted her, filming the act in the process.

The DSP said that on April 2, the girl was on her way to school to collect her mark sheet when Chand stopped her and warned that if she did not meet Asad, he would post the video online.

Luthra brothers granted bail in NOC forgery case

ANI
MAPUSA (GOA)

The Mapusa JMFC Court in Goa has granted bail to accused Saurabh Luthra and Gaurav Luthra in a document forgery case registered by Mapusa Police, their lawyer Parag Rao told ANI.

Bail was granted on execution of a personal bond of Rs 50,000 each. The case dealt with the alleged forgery of a no-objection certificate (NOC).

Earlier on April 1, the Court of the Additional Sessions Judge at Merces, Goa, granted regular bail to the Luthra brothers in connection with the alleged nightclub fire incident in Goa. They are set to be released from the Central Jail at Colvale today.

The Luthra brothers are co-owners of the 'Birch by Romeo Lane' nightclub, in which 25 people died, and several others were injured in a fire on December 6, 2025.

On March 24, the district court at Mapusa in North Goa granted bail to Ajay Gupta, co-owner of the 'Birch by Romeo Lane' nightclub. Gupta, who was arrested in New Delhi over three months ago, secured bail, his lawyer Rohan Desai told ANI.

Goa nightclub fire: ED attaches assets worth Rs17 crore

PTI

The Enforcement Directorate attached immovable assets worth Rs 17.45 crore as part of its money laundering investigation against the promoters of a Goa-based nightclub where 25 people were killed in a blaze in December 2025.

Earlier, on December 16, last year, the Luthra brothers were brought from Delhi to Goa after being deported from Thailand. The government initiated criminal proceedings against the club owners over alleged negligence and violation of mandatory safety norms after a fire at the Arpora nightclub on December 6.

Allahabad HC reserves order on plea over Rahul's 'Indian state' remark

ANI
PRAYAGRAJ

The Allahabad High Court on Wednesday reserved its judgment on a plea challenging Rahul Gandhi's remarks made during the inauguration of the Congress party's new headquarters, "Indira Bhawan," in New Delhi.

The single bench of Justice Vikram D. Chauhan reserved the order after hearing the completed arguments on the petition.

The case pertains to a statement made by Rahul Gandhi on January 15, 2025, where he stated: "Our fight is with RSS, BJP as well as the Indian State."

The petition, filed by Simran Gupta, challenges a previous decision by the Chandausi court in Sambhal.

On November 7, 2025, the Chandausi court had dismissed the petitioner's plea against the Congress MP, labelling the case as weak.

Petitioner Gupta moved the Allahabad High Court to challenge the order issued by the Additional District and Sessions Judge of the Chandausi court.

Earlier on May 21, 2025, the District Judge Court of Sambhal issued notice to Lok Sabha Leader of Opposition Rahul Gandhi to either respond or appear on April 4 in connection with a complaint filed against him over his statement that "Our fight is not against BJP or RSS, but against the Indian state."

Speaking to ANI, Advocate Sachin Goyal said the court accepted the complaint and issued the notice to Gandhi, directing him to either appear in court on April 4 or submit a response.

"Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha and Congress leader Rahul Gandhi had made a statement on 15 January 2025 that 'We are now fighting the BJP, the RSS and the Indian State itself.' Simran Gupta had filed a case in the special MP/MLA court to register an FIR against Rahul Gandhi.

Fresh snowfall in higher reaches of HP, mercury drops

PTI
SHIMLA

Several high-altitude areas of Himachal Pradesh experienced fresh snowfall on Wednesday, while moderate to heavy rains lashed the mid and lower hills, bringing down temperatures.

The local MeT department has issued a yellow warning for light to moderate rain at isolated places, accompanied by thunderstorms, lightning and gusty winds reaching 40-50 kmph in parts of Mandi, Kullu and Shimla districts on Wednesday, officials said.

Rohtang Pass and Kufri were among the places that received fresh snowfall, while Shikari Mata temple in Mandi district, located at an altitude of 11,000 ft, also witnessed intermittent snow, which is unusual in the month of April, they said. Orchardists and farmers expressed concern over the weather, saying snowfall and stormy conditions during April would damage apple and stone fruits as well as standing wheat ready for harvest.

Pawan Khera moves T'gana HC seeking anticipatory bail

Congress leader Pawan Khera on Wednesday moved the Telangana High Court seeking anticipatory bail in a case filed against him by the Assam government on his allegations against Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma's wife.

Khera, who showed his residential address in Hyderabad, requested the court to release him on bail in the event of his arrest. The petition was filed on April 7. It will be taken up by the court on April 9.

Khera named the DCP of Guwahati Crime Branch Police Station and Telangana government as respondents to his petition.

The case was registered in the Guwahati Crime Branch Police Station against Khera under several sections of the BNS, including 175 (false statement in connection with an election), 35 (Right of private defence of the body and of property) and 318 (cheating).

The Congress leader on April 5 alleged that Sarma's wife, Riniki Bhuyan Sarma, has multiple passports and foreign property, which were not declared in the chief minister's election affidavit.

An Assam Police team had earlier visited the Delhi residence of Khera for questioning in connection with the case.
